

Open Tap Class with Chris Horsey

Chris Horsey is a leading tap dancer and choreographer in the Australian tap dance scene.

Starting Friday August 15 Chris is launching two new weekly tap classes!

Every Friday 6.00pm - 7.15pm Intermediate Tap (Adult & Teen)

Every Friday 7.15pm - 8.30pm Advanced/Professional Tap (Adult & Teen)

Private lessons also available.

Location - Diana Reyes Flamenco Studio
585b King St Newtown
(St Peters end)

$20.00 per class

cridemail@yahoo.com.au for enquiries/information

Christopher Horsey is the winner of the 'Fred Astaire International Tap Championship' (Waldorf Astoria, NYC). He has performed in the Frank Sinatra Concert, and alongside Stevie Wonder in 'Quincy Jones, 50 years In The Business'. Original cast '42nd St', 'Chicago - The Musical' and 'Singin In The Rain', Chris also created the role of Tip for 'Hot Shoe Shuffle' (Australia, UK, Japan & NZ) and was a guest artist at The Olivier Awards at The London Palladium. As a founding member of 'Tap Dogs', his performance at Union Square Theatre, New York earned him a Village Voice 'Obie Award'. On film Chris starred as Angus in Fox Searchlight's 'Bootmen'